Reliable Document Question Answering

Grounded Answers

A grounded answer should be supported by retrieved document passages. If evidence is missing or ambiguous, the assistant should acknowledge that rather than inventing facts.

Reliable Document Question Answering

Citations and Prompt Injection

Citations identify the source document and page so readers can verify claims. Uploaded documents must be treated as data, not as instructions that override the assistant's rules. Instructions embedded in a document should not override the assistant's system rules.